Bayern Munich secured a dramatic 3-2 aggregate victory over Paris Saint-Germain to advance to the UEFA
Champions League semi-finals following a tense second-leg clash at the Allianz Arena.

Striker Harry Kane scored the decisive header in the 88th minute, meeting a curling cross from Jamal Musiala.
Despite dominating ball possession with 64% in the second half and registering 17 shots on target, PSG was unable to breach the resolute defensive line in extra time.

Manager Thomas Tuchel praised the squad's tactical discipline and physical endurance under intense pressure.
Bayern will face Real Madrid in the upcoming semi-final round next month.
